FULL ACCOUNT OF CEREMONIES.

Hong Kong was beflagged to-day in honour of the sixty-third birthday of His Majesty King George V. The Union Jack flew from big buildings in town, from houses on the middle and upper levels and from the Peak. Vessels in harbour were dressed, from the men-of-war and merchantmen down to steam-launches and small craft, and even a number of sampans had the flag up.

Interest was centred on the assembly at the Cenotaph by the three branches of the Fighting Services in what was known technically as the "Alternative Parade." The elite of Hong Kong arrived day morning. Unfavourable weather at the beginning of the week-end's holiday may have prevented a number from getting away. Hence, with-the sun-coming out yesterday afternoon, most people made up their minds to see the parade. Admirable arrangements had been made by the Police, who were ably assisted by the Police Reserve. Members of the Flying Squad and the Sharpshooters' Company were also on duty. Detachments from the St. - John Ambulance Brigade were on duty all over the city, ready to attend to any casualty. SHIPPING SECTION.

CO-OPERATING WITH THE OBSERVATORY.

WORK TOGETHER!

MARINERS, PLEASE NOTE.

In their circular No. 403 the Marconi International Marine Communication Co. authorised their operators to send weather reports to the Royal Observatory, Hong Kong, and shipmasters are earnestly requested to co-operate in the forecasting and storm-warning work of the Observatory, by arranging for meteorological observations to be made in accordance with the programme given below, and transmitted by the wireless operator without delay.

The accuracy and utility of the Observatory forecasts will increase in proportion to the number of ships co-operating, the accuracy of the observations, and the promptness with which they are despatched. In the interest of shipping, therefore, every master possessing a radio-telegraphic installation should send observations at the hours stated, namely, at 0300, 0600, 0900 and 2200 G.M.T., and endeavour to make the service as efficient as possible.

Other notable players in the cast are Marceline Day, George Fawcett and Sam de Grasse. PROSPECTS FOR THE NEXT SEASON.

H.K.F.A. MEETING.

[By "Royer."]

The coming month, although in the close season, is an important one for Hong Kong football. This week, in all probability on Tuesday, the meeting of the Hong Kong Football Association Council takes place when the most important business of the evening will be the proposed alteration of rules. the absence of any proposals from the Clubs, the next business wi be the arranging of the annua general meeting which, according to rule 5 of the H.K.F.A., will be held some time before June 80. Of this latter meeting the clubs. will have seven days' notice and each club is entitled to send two representatives. The meeting will select the H.K.F.A. Council for the coming year, all officials retiring and re-election for all posts on the Council being balloted for.

Governing Bodies. The clubs will have their chance of electing the governing bodies which are responsible for everything connected with Hong Kong football for the coming season.

The meeting is of more than usual interest owing to the advance of soccer in the Colony during the past few seasons, and the management committee should be selected with great care and should only include representatives who are keen followers of the game in the Colony and can be relied on to exercise their authority judgment apart from individual club partisanship.

Officers Who Will Be Away. There are bound to be changes on the Council.

Mr. Hector McTavish, the popular Vice-President of the Hong Kong Football League, is most probably leaving the Colony in the near future and his position on the Council will be difficult to fill.

Mr. J. W. Baldwin, one of our most prominent and popular referees and a councillor, will also in all probability be leaving the Match between the senior and the winner. Glory was thus win-Colony-before-next-season----

£100 DAMAGES. GRAVE ALLEGATION DISPROVED.

MONS LIBEL SUIT.

London, May 2. The hearing of the libel action which General Sir Arthur Currie brought against the "Port Hope Guide" for alleging that he was responsible for wanton loss of life in ordering the capture of Mons on the morning of Armistice Day concluded yesterday. Sir Arthur Currie claimed £10,000 damages. He was awarded £100 ($500).

The judge awarded plaintiff costs, thus saddling the defence with a bill approaching $15,000 Mr. George Munsey was the sole dissenting juror. The jury were absent for three hours forty-three minutes.

Sir Arthur Currie declared that he had brought the action, not for the sake of any monetary damages, but to vindicate his record and to stop the scandalous stories which had been current for years, which had culminated in the article in the "Port Hope Guide.

The trial created enormous . interest in Canada. Sir Arthur Currie commanded the Canadian Army Corps in the Great War, and is now Principal of McGill Uni-

For some years there have been rumours and insinuations against the man who led the Canadian forces to victory, accepted in some cases by the mothers, wives, and sisters of men who fell in the field, and who themselves would probably have been the first to refute such allegations against their commander. An editorial written by Mr. Preston, published in a small Ontario paper, the "Port Hope Evening Guide," on the occasion of the unveiling of a plaque at Mons last August, brought these in sinuations to a head. It asserted that Sir Arthur Currie had led the ed the final fight there for his own glorification, although the order for the cessation of hostilities at a given time on Nov. 11 had been

OXFORD_AND CAMBRIDGE PROSPECTS.

THE HIGHT CANTABS.

Not only have they engaged a Messrs. J. Cameron and N. F. very much larger professional staff, be met: Lancashire, Kent, Gloucestershire, Derbyshire, Glamorgan and Leicester, in addition to the Foresters and the West Indies. All these games are at Oxford, and on tour Essex, Surrey, the M.C.C. and H. D. G. Leveson-Gower's XI. will be encountered.

The staff consists of J. T Hearne and Fowler (Middlesex). Makepeace (Lancashire)—as prehminary coach-Beslee (Kent), Sinfield (Gloucester), Remnant (Scotland), and Walters, the Ful-19 ham footballer, who is an Oxonian. M. A. McCanlis is the new captain, and he will command the services of six old Blues, A. M O Crawley, P. V. F. Cazalet, J. H. Nunn, A. T. Barber, W. M. McBride, and R. I. F. McIntosh, all of whom should keep their places. McBride could not play last year owing to illness, and for the same reason Nunn was very much out of form. Both, however, are now fully recovered and felt no illeffects through playing football in the winter.

Strong in Seniors.

The seniors include such useful players as C. E. Frazer, H. H. Garland-Wells, T. B. G. Welch, E. Snell, C. K. Hill-Wood, P. G. E Nash, N. A. Doggart, and A. S Bradshaw, while among the Freshmen are that very fine bat from Winchester, P. G. T. Kingsley, and R. Eglinton (Sherborne), J. M. Monkhouse (Rugby), G. A. R. Farquharson, who has had experience in the West Indies, E. J. Tucker (a bowler from Tonbridge), R. W. Skene (Sedbergh), and J. H. Green (Brighton)-two left-handers-E. W. Welling (Chelbenham), and P. H. Staples (Shrewsbury), and last, but not least, the Nawab of Pataudi, a young Indian who has had the advantage of Being coached by Frank Woolley.

There is scope here, under wise leadership for a good all-round side, and in McCanlis Oxford have just the kind of captain to take advantage of the material at his

As not a single Freshman got in the side last year it is only to be expected that the Seniors will be rather stronger than usual. Both N. G. Wykes and E. T. Killick were unfortunate not to get in last year, and, good as they undoubtedly are, I it is very difficult to see how places
